Expertise

Michaela Zehnder joined Niederer Kraft Frey in 2000. She specializes in business relocation matters and private residence planning, in matters relating to private clients as well as in trademark law.

In business relocation and private residency planning, her activity is focused on advising foreign and Swiss employers as well as employees regarding location issues, work and residence permits, social security issues, naturalization as well as acquisition of real estate by foreign nationals.

Clients span a broad range of industries, including banking, finance, insurance, information technology, media and telecommunication. She develops corporate immigration strategies and facilitates the temporary and permanent entry of senior executives and key personnel of foreign and Swiss corporations.

Michaela Zehnder also advises individuals who wish to become permanent residents in Switzerland in order to live, work or join dependants.

Furthermore, Michaela Zehnder advises high net worth individuals (HNWIs) and families in various aspects of their private life and their business activities.

Michaela Zehnder also practises as a trademark agent and advises clients from the clearance to the registration of trademarks as well as on the management of trademark portfolios. She has extensive expertise in all aspects of the protection of trademarks and provides advice and opinions on trademark protection to international corporations with worldwide trademark portfolios.
