Niederer Kraft Frey continues growth of its Financing and Corporate/M&A practice with appointment of Adrian Koller as new partner

Niederer Kraft Frey is very pleased to announce the appointment of Adrian Koller as partner as of 1 January 2021.

Adrian Koller's practice focuses on Swiss and international financing and M&A transactions. Adrian also advises clients on other corporate and commercial law matters. With the addition of Adrian Koller to the partnership, NKF underscores its commitment to the promotion of talent and recognition of personal achievements. Adrian Koller will in particular further strengthen NKF's Financing and Corporate/M&A practice.

Philippe Weber, Managing Partner: "We are very pleased to welcome Adrian Koller to the NKF partnership. We thank Adrian for his outstanding performance to date and look forward to continuing NKF's success story together with him – both in Switzerland and internationally".
